

Research Questions

- A) Do students with higher family incomes more frequently choose non-technical fields of study?
- B) Does the student's gender affect the choice of technical vs. non-technical field of study?
- C) Do students with lower family incomes aspire to join the industry/gain employment sooner as opposed to further education?
- D) How does income inequality result in shifts in the proportion of technical workers in the labour force?
- E) Are specific programmes more popular at certain income brackets?